Executive Summary

Every Victorian Council must, within the period of 4 months after a general election, call a Special Meeting solely for the purpose of reviewing the Councillor Code of Conduct and, at that meeting, approve any amendments to be made to the Councillor Code of Conduct following a review of the Code.

In accordance with this requirement Council has reviewed its Councillor Code of Conduct and does not require any changes to the Code. It is recommended that the attached Councillor Code of Conduct 2017 be adopted by Council and that all Councillors declare that they will abide by the Code.

Discussion

The current Councillor Code of Conduct was adopted by Council on 15 June 2016. It was drafted following the changes introduced by the Local Government Amendment (Improved Governance) Act 2015.

The current Code conforms to the requirements of the Local Government Act 1989 and contains clear direction on the behaviours and standards expected of Councillors and commitments to those behaviours and standards. The Code was developed through research of other Council's Councillor Codes of Conduct and the MAV draft Councillor Code of Conduct 2016.

The Councillor Code of Conduct 2016 contains sections in relation to roles and responsibilities; Councillor Conduct Principles; Councillor Behaviours; Prohibited Conduct; decision making; use of Council information and resources; relationships with Council staff; gifts; communication; personal dealings with Council and dispute resolution procedures.

The sections in relation to application of the code; roles and responsibilities; legislative requirements; prohibited conduct; additional statutory requirements; personal dealing with council and dispute resolution procedures have been added to this version of the Councillor Code of Conduct, or materially altered, to reflect not only the legislative changes but Council's commitment to good governance, leadership, transparency and decision making.

The Code of Conduct has been reviewed following the 2016 Council Elections and it is recommended that no changes are made to the current Code of Conduct.

Legislation, Council Plan and Policy Impacts

The Councillor Code of Conduct has been reviewed in accordance with section 76C of the Local Government Act 1989.

Council Plan - Outcome 1.1 - Soundly Based Decisions

Strategy 1.1.1 - Based decisions on the highest available level of professional advice and expertise.

Strategy 1.1.2 - Develop and enact policies, plans and strategies to ensure consistency in decision making

Strategy 1.1.3 – Demonstrate leadership through ethically, socially and environmentally responsible conduct

Strategy 1.1.4 – Work together to develop a highly responsive Council organisation.

Disclosure of Interests

All Council Officers involved in the development and advice provided in this Report affirm that no direct or indirect interests need to be declared in relation to any matters in this Report.

RECOMMENDATION

That the Councillor Code of Conduct as presented be adopted and the declaration to abide by the Code be signed by all Councillors.

7. Close of Meeting

This concludes the business of the meeting.

This Code, which incorporates the statutory requirements specified for a Code of Conduct in accordance with the Local Government Act 1989, was adopted by resolution of the Southern Grampians Shire Council on 8 February 2017.

1. INTRODUCTION

As custodians of the Southern Grampians Shire Council, Councillors hold a unique and important leadership role within Victoria. This role is recognised in the Local Government Act 1989 (the Act) which describes the role and responsibilities of the Council, Mayor, Councillors and Chief Executive Officer.

As Councillors we commit to carrying out our role to the highest standards of conduct and behaviour. As part of this commitment all Councillors will adhere to the conduct principles, values and processes outlined in the Act and this Councillor Code of Conduct.

As Councillors of the Southern Grampians Shire Council we are committed to working together in the best interests of the people within our municipality and to discharging our responsibilities to the best of our skill and judgment.

This Code:

- sets out the standards of conduct expected of elected representatives;
- endeavours to foster good working relations between Councillors to enable Councillors to work constructively together in the best interests of the local community; and
- mandates councillor conduct designed to build public confidence in the integrity of local government.

2. APPLICATION OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT

A Councillor must observe the Code of Conduct whenever he or she:

- a) Conducts the business of Council;
- b) Conducts the business of the office to which he or she has been elected or appointed;
- c) Acts as a representative of Council; and
- d) Is in any dealings with the public and/or generally in the public arena.

This Code of Conduct does not apply to Council Staff. Council Staff are bound by the Staff Code of Conduct.

3. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Our primary role as Councillors is to set the vision and direction for the Southern Grampians Shire Council; to advocate on behalf of the whole community; and to make a range of decisions on issues which affect the community.

The business of Council will be conducted in a professional manner with efficiency and impartiality; whilst demonstrating compassion and sensitivity towards the needs of the community. We acknowledge our obligations as Councillors to carry out our duties in the best interests of the community and in accordance with the Act.

The primary role of the Council is to provide leadership for the good governance of the Southern Grampians Shire. The role of the Council also includes:

- 3.1. acting as a representative government by taking into account the diverse needs of the local community in decision making;
- 3.2. providing leadership by establishing strategic objectives and monitoring their achievement;
- 3.3. maintaining the viability of the Council by ensuring that resources are managed in a responsible and accountable manner;
- 3.4. advocating the interests of the local community to other communities and governments;
- 3.5. acting as a responsible partner in government by taking into account the needs of other communities; and
- 3.6. fostering community cohesion and encouraging active participation in civic life.

ROLE OF MAYOR AND COUNCILLORS

Section 73 states that the mayor takes precedence at all municipal proceedings within the municipality, the mayor must chair all meetings of the council (when present), and the mayor has a casting vote when required.

Section 73AA of the Act describes the functions of the Mayor as including:

- a) providing guidance to Councillors about what is expected of a Councillor including in relation to the role of a Councillor under section 65, and the observation of the Councillor conduct principles and the Councillor Code of Conduct by Councillors under sections 76B, 76BA and 76C; and
- b) acting as the principal spokesperson for the council; and
- c) supporting good working relations between Councillors; and
- d) carrying out the civic and ceremonial duties of the office of Mayor.

Section 65 of the Act provides that the role of a Councillor is:

- a) to participate in the decision-making of the Council; and
- b) to represent the local community in that decision-making; and
- c) to contribute to the strategic direction of the Council through the development and review of key strategic documents of the Council, including the Council Plan.

In performing the role of a Councillor, a Councillor must:

- d) participate in the responsible allocation of the resources of Council through the annual budget; and
- e) facilitate effective communication between the Council and the community.

The role of a Councillor does not include the performance of any functions that are specified as functions of the Chief Executive Officer under section 94A of the Act.

FUNCTIONS OF THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

The Chief Executive Officer is responsible for:

RELATIONSHIPS WITH STAFF

As Councillors we will work as part of the Council team with the Chief Executive Officer and other members of staff. There must be mutual respect and understanding between Councillors and officers in relation to their respective roles, functions and responsibilities.

Our role is one of advocacy and leadership rather than management and administration. The Chief Executive Officer is responsible for all staff matters.

We will scrupulously avoid situations giving rise to the appearance that a person or body, through the provision of gifts, benefits or hospitality of any kind, is attempting to gain favourable treatment from an individual Councillor or from the Council.

We will take all reasonable steps to ensure that our immediate family members (parents, spouse, children and siblings) do not receive gifts or benefits that give rise to the appearance of being an attempt to gain favourable treatment.

We will not accept gifts either in our role as councillor or where it could be perceived to influence us in our role as a councillor except:

As individual Councillors we are entitled to express independent views through the media, however we will make it clear that any unofficial comment is a personal view, and does not represent the position of the Council as a whole.

14. PERSONAL DEALINGS WITH COUNCIL

When we deal with our Council in our private capacity (e.g. as a ratepayer, recipient of a Council service or applicant for a permit) we do not expect nor will we request preferential treatment in relation to any such private matter. We will avoid any action that could lead Council staff or members of the public to believe that we are seeking preferential treatment.

- c) If a councillor has a personal interest in a matter to be considered by the Council or special committee that is not a conflict of interest, and the councillor considers that their personal interest may be in conflict with their public duty to act impartially and in the interest of the whole community, the councillor will declare a conflicting personal interest under section 79B of the Act immediately before the matter is considered at the relevant meeting and apply to the Council or special committee to be exempted from voting on the matter.

In addition to the requirements of the Act:

- a) We will give early consideration to each matter to be considered by the Council, any special committee to which we belong, or assembly of Councillors, to ascertain if we have a conflict of interest.
- b) We recognise that the legal onus to determine whether a conflict of interest exists rests entirely with each individual councillor and that Council officers cannot offer any advice in relation to potential conflicts. If we cannot confidently say that we do not have a conflict of interest, we will declare a conflict of interest and comply with the relevant requirements as if we had a conflict of interest.
- c) If we consider that we may be unable to vote on a matter because of a conflict of interest, we will notify, as soon as possible, the Mayor or the Committee Chair, depending on whether the matter is to be considered by the Council, a special committee, or an assembly of Councillors, as well as the Chief Executive Officer.

16. DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURES

Before commencing any formal dispute resolution process, the Councillors who are parties to a dispute are expected to use their best endeavours to resolve the matter in a courteous and respectful manner between themselves. Where, after these endeavours have been exhausted, the matter still remains unresolved, the parties may resort to any or all of the Council's three phase dispute resolution process.

The Council's three phase dispute resolution process involves:

- direct negotiation between the parties in dispute with the Mayor in attendance to provide guidance;
- external mediation by an independent mediator engaged by the Chief Executive Officer; and
- an internal resolution procedure involving an independent arbiter.

PHASE 1 – DIRECT NEGOTIATION

Where Councillors who are in dispute have not been able to resolve the dispute between them, either (or both) party (parties) may request the Mayor to convene a meeting of the parties.

A dispute referred for direct negotiation may relate to:

- an interpersonal conflict between Councillors where the conflict is or is likely to affect the operations of the Council; or
- an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

The party requesting the direct negotiation meeting is to provide the Mayor with the name of the other Councillor and the details of the dispute in writing. The written request is to indicate that it is for a “direct negotiation” dispute resolution process. Where the request relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct, the request must:

- specify the name of the Councillor alleged to have contravened the Code;
- specify the provision(s) of the Code that is alleged to have been contravened;
- include evidence in support of the allegation;
- name the Councillor appointed to be their representative where the request is made by a group of councillors; and
- be signed and dated by the requestor or the requestor’s representative.

The requestor is to notify the other party of the request and provide him or her with a copy of the written request either at the same time as it is provided to the Mayor or as soon as practicable thereafter.

The Mayor is to ascertain whether or not the other party is prepared to attend a “direct negotiation” meeting.

If the other party is not prepared to attend a meeting, the Mayor is to advise the requestor forthwith. No further action is required of the Mayor.

If the other party declines to participate in a meeting, this does not constitute a contravention of this Councillor Code of Conduct.

If the other party consents to a meeting, the Mayor is to convene a meeting of the parties at the earliest available opportunity. Unless one or both parties are unavailable, this should be within 5 working days of receiving the consent of the other party.

The Mayor may present the parties with guidelines, in advance of the meeting or at the meeting, to help facilitate the meeting.

The role of the Mayor at the meeting is to provide guidance to Councillors about what is expected of a Councillor including in relation to the role of a Councillor under section 65 of the Act, and the observation of the councillor conduct principles and the Councillor Code of Conduct.

The Mayor is to document any agreement reached at the meeting. Copies of the agreement are to be provided to both parties. Where one party does not comply with the agreement, the other party has recourse to external mediation or the internal resolution procedure where the matter relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

If the parties cannot resolve the dispute at the meeting, a further meeting may be convened with the consent of both parties. Where the dispute remains unresolved, either or both of the parties have recourse to external mediation or the internal resolution procedure where the matter relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

Where the Mayor is a party to the dispute, the request is to be made to the Deputy Mayor (if any) or the immediate past Mayor. The Deputy Mayor or the immediate past Mayor will perform the functions ascribed to the Mayor.

PHASE 2 – EXTERNAL MEDIATION

A Councillor or a group of Councillors may make an application for a dispute to be referred for external mediation whether or not the dispute has been the subject of an application for “direct negotiation”.

An application made for a dispute to be referred for external mediation may relate to:

- an interpersonal conflict between Councillors where the conflict is or is likely to affect the operations of the Council; or
- an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

The applicant is to submit a written application to the Principal Conduct Officer setting out the name of the Councillor and the details of the dispute. The application is to indicate that the application is for an “external mediation”. Where the application relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct, the application must:

- specify the name of the Councillor alleged to have contravened the Code;
- specify the provision(s) of the Code that is alleged to have been contravened;
- include evidence in support of the allegation;
- name the Councillor appointed to be their representative where the application is made by a group of councillors; and
- be signed and dated by the applicant or the applicant’s representative.

The applicant is to notify the other party of the request and provide him or her with a copy of the application either at the same time that it is submitted to the Principal Conduct Officer or as soon as practical thereafter.

The Principal Conduct Officer is to ascertain (in writing) whether or not the other party is prepared to attend an “external mediation”. If the other party declines to participate in an external mediation, he or she is to provide their reasons for doing so in writing to the Principal Conduct Officer. These reasons may be taken into account if the matter is, subsequently, the subject of an application for a Councillor Conduct Panel.

When the other party declines to participate in an external mediation, this does not constitute a contravention of this Councillor Code of Conduct.

If the other party agrees to participate in an external mediation, the Principal Conduct Officer is to advise the applicant, the Mayor and Chief Executive Officer forthwith.

The Chief Executive Officer is to engage the services of an external mediator to conduct the mediation at the earliest practicable opportunity.

The mediator is to document any agreement reached at the meeting. Copies of the agreement are to be provided to both parties. Where one party does not comply with the agreement, the other party has recourse to the internal resolution procedure where the matter relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

If the parties cannot resolve the dispute at the meeting, a further meeting may be convened with the consent of both parties. Where the dispute remains unresolved, the applicant has recourse to the internal resolution procedure where the matter relates to an alleged contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct.

PHASE 3 - INTERNAL RESOLUTION PROCEDURE - ARBITER

An application cannot be made for an internal resolution procedure during the election period for a general election. Any internal resolution procedure that is in progress is to be suspended during the election period for a general election.

If the respondent to an application for an internal resolution procedure is not returned to office as a Councillor in the election, the application lapses. If the respondent is returned to office in the election, the application may resume if:

- the application was made by the Council and the Council so resolves; or
- the application were made by a group of Councillors and any one (or more) of those Councillors who has been returned to office wishes to proceed with the application; or
- the applicant (individual Councillor) is returned to office and wishes to proceed with the application.

A councillor or a group of councillors may make an application alleging that a Councillor has contravened this Councillor Code of Conduct. The application must:

- specify the name of the Councillor alleged to have contravened the Code;
- specify the provision(s) of the Code that is alleged to have been contravened;
- include evidence in support of the allegation;
- name the Councillor appointed to be their representative where the application is made by a group of councillors; and
- be signed and dated by the applicant or the applicant's representative.

The application must be submitted to the Council's Principal Conduct Officer. An applicant may withdraw an application for an internal resolution procedure. Once an application has been withdrawn, the same or a similar application relating to the same instance in relation to the respondent Councillor cannot be resubmitted by the applicant.

On receiving an application, the Principal Conduct Officer will:

- advise the Mayor and CEO of the application without undue delay;

- provide a copy of the application to the Councillor who is the subject of the allegation at the earliest practical opportunity but not later than two working days from receipt of the application;
- identify an arbiter to hear the application;
- obtain from the arbiter written advice that they have no conflict of interest in relation to the Councillors involved;
- notify the parties of the name of the proposed arbiter and provide them with the opportunity (2 working days) to object to the person proposed to be the arbiter;
- consider the grounds of any objection and appoint the proposed arbiter or identify another arbiter;
- provide a copy of the application to the arbiter as soon as practicable after the opportunity for the parties to object to an arbiter has expired;
- after consultation with the arbiter, advise the applicant and the respondent of the time and place for the hearing; and
- attend the hearing(s) and assist the arbiter in the administration of the process.

In identifying an arbiter to hear the application, the Principal Conduct Officer must select an arbiter who is suitably independent and able to carry out the role of arbiter fairly.

The role of the arbiter is to:

- consider applications alleging a contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct by a Councillor;
- make findings in relation to any application alleging a contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct which the arbiter must give to the Council;
- give a written statement of reasons supporting the findings to the Council at the same time as it gives its findings to the Council;
- recommend an appropriate sanction or sanctions where the arbiter has found that a Councillor has contravened the Councillor Code of Conduct.

In considering an application alleging a contravention of the Councillor Code of Conduct, an arbiter will:

- in consultation with the Principal Conduct Officer, fix a time and place to hear the application;
- authorise the Principal Conduct Officer to formally notify the applicant and the respondent of the time and place of the hearing;
- hold as many meetings as he or she considers necessary to properly consider the application. The arbiter may hold a directions hearing;
- have discretion to conduct the hearings as he or she deems fit while ensuring that the hearings are conducted with as little formality and technicality as due and proper consideration of the application allows;
- ensure that the parties to and affected by an application are given an opportunity to be heard by the arbiter;
- consider an application by a respondent to have legal representation at the hearing to ensure that the hearing is conducted fairly and may, in his or her absolute discretion, grant the application or deny the application;
- ensure that the rules of natural justice are observed and applied in the hearing of the application; and
- ensure that the hearings are closed to the public.

Where an application to have legal representation is granted by an arbiter, the costs of the respondent's legal representation are to be borne by the respondent in their entirety.

An arbiter:

- may find that a Councillor who is a respondent to an internal resolution procedure application has not contravened the Code;
- may find that a Councillor who is a respondent to an internal resolution procedure has contravened the Code;
- will suspend consideration of an internal resolution procedure during the election period for a general election.

The arbiter is to give a copy of his or her findings and the statement of reasons to the Council, the applicant and the respondent. At the same time, the arbiter provides the findings and statement of reasons, he or she shall, where a Councillor has been found to have contravened the Code, recommend an appropriate sanction or sanctions for the contravention for consideration by the Council.

A copy of the arbiter's findings, statement of reasons and any recommended sanctions is to be submitted to the next ordinary meeting of the Council for its consideration. If an arbiter has found that a contravention of the Code has occurred, the Council may, after considering the arbiter's findings, statement of reasons and recommendation on sanctions, give any or all of the following written directions to the Councillor:

- direct the Councillor to make an apology in a form or manner specified by the Council;
- direct the Councillor to not attend up to, but not exceeding, 2 meetings of the Council (in respect of the next scheduled meetings of the Council);
- direct that, for a period of up to, but not exceeding, 2 months on a date specified by the Council the Councillor:
 - be removed from any position where the Councillor represents the Council; and
 - to not chair or attend any advisory committee or special committee meeting or an assembly of Councillors or any other meeting specified in the direction.

A Councillor who does not participate in the internal resolution procedure may be guilty of misconduct. The Act provides that misconduct by a Councillor means any of the following:

- (a) failure by a Councillor to comply with the Council's internal resolution procedure; or
- (b) failure by a Councillor to comply with a written direction given by the Council under section 81AB; or
- (c) repeated contravention of any of the Councillor conduct principles.

Allegations of misconduct are heard on application by a Councillor Conduct Panel.
